The cornerstones of the AWT mandate are:

Connect: Events and conferences provide enlightening, motivational and fun networking opportunities for women in technology.

Learn: Business and technology presentations and discussions that are designed to inform and encourage intelligent discussions about relevant topics.

Grow: Participation provides the chance to surround yourself with a network that will challenge and support you, fostering both personal and career growth. We encourage one another to move into action, create change and inspire others.

Lead: Opportunities to be involved encourage members to gain a full picture of their leadership strengths and enable them to make a difference within their organization, family and community.
